

Contents

List of Contributors	page viii
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction
1 What Is Democratic Education and Why Should We Care? Julian Culp, Johannes Drerup, and Douglas Yacek	3
Part I Historical Perspectives
2 Plato on Democratic Education Mark E. Jonas	13
3 Aristotle on Education, Democracy, and Civic Friendship Randall Curren	29
4 Rousseau on Democratic Education Avi I. Mintz	45
5 Dewey on Democratic Education Natalia Rogach Alexander	61
6 Hannah Arendt on the Very Possibility of Democratic Education Roland Reichenbach	74
7 Paulo Freire on Democratic Education Peter Roberts	90
8 Rabindranath Tagore on Democratic Education Ratna Ghosh	108
Part II Philosophical and Normative Foundations
9 Normative Case Studies as Democratic Education Ellis Reid and Meira Levinson	129
10 Moral Education and Democratic Education Michael Hand	146
11 Rawlsian Political Liberalism and Democratic Education Blain Neufeld	160

12	Social Justice Education and Democratic Legitimacy Lauren Bialystok	178
13	Critical Theory, Local Moral Perception, and Democratic Education Drew Chambers	196
14	Democratic Deliberation in the Absence of Integration Michael S. Merry	230
15	Education and Democratic Citizenship: Capabilities and Quality Education Martha C. Nussbaum	250
Part III Key Topics and Concepts
16	Educational Justice and Democratic Education Stefan Gosepath	263
17	Global Justice and Democratic Education Krassimir Stojanov	281
18	Debate and Deliberation in Democratic Education Jane Lo and Paula McAvoy	298
19	Agonistic Democracy and the Question of Education Gert Biesta	311
20	Punishment and Democratic Education Bryan R. Warnick and A. C. Nikolaidis	328
21	Children's Rights and Democratic Education Colin M. Macleod	346
22	Education, Trust, and the Conversation of Democracy Anthony Simon Laden	361
23	Patriotism and Democratic Education Richard Dagger	377
24	The Voice of Poetry in Cultivating Cosmopolitan and Democratic Imagination David T. Hansen and Yuval Dwek	395
25	Disability and Democratic Education Franziska Felder	416
Part IV Challenges
26	Wealth Stratification in US Higher Education and Democratic Education, 1890s-2020s Bruce A. Kimball and Sarah M. Iler	435
27	Mentoring and Instructional Duties of Professors Harry Brighouse	456
28	Racism, Moral Transformation, and Democratic Education Ilya Zrudis	474
29	Postcolonial Perspectives on Democratic Education Penny Enslin and Kai Horsthemke	494
30	Populist Challenges to Democratic Education Jürgen Oelkers	512

31 Religion and Democratic Education
Brett Bertucio	531
32 The Epistocratic Challenge to Democratic Education
Ben Kotzee	550
33 Climate Change and Democratic Education
Anders Schinkel	574
34 The COVID-19 Pandemic and Democratic Education
Johannes Giesinger	594
35 Teacher Neutrality, Pedagogical Impartiality, and Democratic Education
Bruce Maxwell	607
Index	628