

Contents

Table of statutes	ix
Table of cases	xvii
Preface	xx
Acknowledgements	xxi
Introduction	xxii

PART I

Current terrorist threats I

1 Islamist-inspired terrorist groups	3
2 Nationalist causes: The on-going political cause in Northern Ireland	30
3 Far-right and extreme far-right (neo-Nazis)	47

PART II

Government and international bodies anti-terrorism policies and roles of international and national counter-terrorism agencies 63

4 Inter-governmental and state government anti-terrorism policies	65
--	----

PART III

Legal definition of terrorism and statutory powers used in counter-terrorism investigations 73

5 Legal definition of terrorism	75
6 Planning acts of terrorism	95
7 Passport and border controls and statutory measures to deal with returning fighters	106
8 Statutory preventative measures	129
9 Surveillance of electronic communications	147

10	International terrorism intelligence exchange, Snowden revelations, the courts and data protection	178
11	Handling informants in terrorist investigations	224
12	Funding terrorism and asset-freezing	247
PART IV
	Extremism, freedom of expression, hate crime and Prevent strategies	265
13	Extremism and radicalisation	267
14	Freedom of expression and hate crime: Analysis looking at the extreme far-right	280
15	Prevent strategies	305
	Bibliography	321
	Index	331