

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
PART I
Guides in Trickster Land	7
1 Hermann Broch: The Spell	9
2 Lewis Hyde: The Gift and the Trickster	17
3 Roberto Calasso: the revolution and its shipwrecking	34
4 Michel Serres: the parasite, from Hermes the communicator to Don Juan the first hero of modernity	49
5 Sándor Márai: from Krisztina a first heroine of modernity to an encounter with the Russians	63
6 Colin Thubron: encounters with Asia	78
7 Albert Camus: the absurd revolt	96

PART II

Exploring the regions of Trickster Land 105

8	Trickster art: imitativity, effect-mongering vs. graceful beauty, and Picasso	107
9	Trickster thought: Magi , mediation and consciousness, and Sartre	125
10	Trickster economy: the fairground origins of infinite substitutability	143
11	Trickster politics: the trick-ful joining of representation and election	157
12	Trickster society: welcome to Absurdistan!	169
	Conclusion	201
	Bibliography	205
	Name index	211
	Subject index	215