

CONTENTS

Introduction: Why Critical Approaches in Foreign Policy Analysis?	1
Birsen Erdoğan and Fulya Hisarlıoğlu
Turkey in the Modern International
Turkey and the Colonial/Modern International	29
Zeynep Gülşah Çapan
A Critical Geopolitical Reading of Turkish Foreign Policy	49
Fulya Hisarlıoğlu
(Geo)Culture in the Making of Turkish Foreign Policy: Three Levels, One Perspective	75
Fulya Aksu and Utku Özer
Turkey's Imagined Communities/Geographies
Mapping Africa: Cartographies of Imagination and Intervention in Turkey	103
Ezgi Güner
Understanding the Place of the Global South Within Turkey's View of World Order	127
Mine Nur Küçük and Neslihan Dikmen-Alsancak

The Momentary Glory of Banal Ottomanism Nazif Mandacı	149
Articulating New and Old 'Friends'
Turkey-China Rapprochement: Turkey's Reconstruction of Its Liminality? Nilgün Eliküçük Yıldırım	173
Friendship, Leadership and Hegemonic Masculinity: An Interpersonal Relationship Between Turkey and Russia C. Akça Ataç	193
Turkey's Relations with the EU from a Critical Perspective: From Europhilism to Anti-Europeanism (2002–2021) Aylin Güney	211
Limbo of (In)Security
Turkish-Greek Relations After the Cold War: Changing Dynamics of Securitisation and Desecuritisation Başar Baysal and Cihan Dizdaroğlu	235
Making Sense of Turkey's Unilateral Military Interventions: Identity, Interests and Security Müge Kinacıoğlu	257
International Interventions and Turkish Foreign Policy Discourses Regarding Libya and Syria Birsen Erdoğan	279
Conclusions Drawn from Critical Readings of Turkey's Foreign Policy Birsen Erdoğan and Fulya Hisarlıoğlu	305
Index	315