

Contents

1	Introduction	1
Part I	Precursors and Concepts	7
2	Colonial-Era Foundations	9
3	Turning Points in a New Nation, 1776–1917	39
4	Framing Practitioner Communities	71
Part II	Twentieth-Century Practitioners	95
5	Borrowing from Civil Society, 1917–1947	97
6	Foreign Service—Building a Foundation, 1948–1970	125
7	Foreign Service—Transforming Diplomacy, 1970–1990	155
8	Cultural Diplomats	181

9	Government Media	211
10	Soldiers	243
11	Covert Operatives and Front Groups	275
12	Democracy Builders	297
13	Presidential Aides	319
Part III Twenty-First-Century US Diplomacy		349
14	Reinvention and Fragmentation	351
15	A Failure to Communicate?	381
16	Looking Ahead	411
Selected Bibliography		443
Index		459