CONTENTS

List of illustrations xiii
Acknowledgements xv

1 Setting the Scene 1
1.1 Introduction 1
1.2 Statement of Aims 2
1.3 Women's Entrepreneurship Defined 2
1.4 Before We Start: A Few Statistics 3
1.5 The Lure of Business Ownership 4
1.6 Profile of Women-Owned Businesses 5
1.7 Book Structure 5

2 The Entrepreneurial Ecosystem 7
2.1 Introduction 7
2.2 Learning Outcomes 7
2.3 Theoretical Grounding of the Entrepreneurial Ecosystem Approach 7
2.4 The Entrepreneurial Ecosystem Defined 8
2.5 Ecosystem – Theoretical Roots 9
2.6 An Inclusive Entrepreneurial Ecosystem 10
2.7 Entrepreneurial Ecosystem and Gender 11
2.8 Entrepreneurial Ecosystem Intermediaries 12
2.9 Entrepreneurial Ecosystem Critique 14
2.10 Conclusion 15
2.11 Discussion Points and Activities 15

3 The Socio-Economic Context of Women's Entrepreneurship 16
3.1 Introduction 16
3.2 Learning Outcomes 16
3.3 Labour Market Structure 17
3.4 Occupational Segregation 17
3.5 Gender Wage Gap 18
3.6 Work-Life Balance 19
3.7 Workplace Discrimination and the Glass Ceiling Effect 21
3.8 Segregated Employment Patterns and Women's Entrepreneurship 22
3.9 Conclusion 24
3.10 Discussion Points and Activities 24

4 Women's Entrepreneurship Policy 25
4.1 Introduction 25
4.2 Learning Outcomes 25
4.3 Entrepreneurship Policy Efforts 25
4.4 Women's Entrepreneurship Policy 28
4.5 Fix the Woman Approach 30
4.6 Evaluation of Entrepreneurship Policy 30
4.7 Lean in Solutions 31
4.8 Gender Mainstreaming 32
4.9 Conclusion 32
4.10 Discussion Points and Activities 33

5 Entrepreneurship as Gendered 34
5.1 Introduction 34
5.2 Learning Outcomes 34
*5.3 The Question Should Not Be "Who Is an Entrepreneur" But Rather "Who Is an Entrepreneuse"? 34*
5.4 Societal Gendered Expectations 37
5.5 Gender Stereotypes and Entrepreneurial Intentions 38
5.6 The Implications of the Androcentric Entrepreneurial Mentality 40
5.7 The Female Under-Performance Hypothesis 41
5.8 Conclusion 42
5.9 Discussion Points and Activities 43

6 Feminist Methodological Approaches 44
6.1 Introduction 44
6.2 Learning Outcomes 44
6.3 What is Gender? 44
6.4 Is Gender a Performance or a Performative? 46

6.5 Using Gender as a Lens to Explore Women's Entrepreneurship 47
6.6 Feminist Research Methodologies 48
6.6.1 Liberal Feminist Theory 48
6.6.2 Social Feminist Theory 49
6.6.3 Post-structuralist Feminist Theory 49
6.7 Post-feminism 50
6.8 Intersectionality of Gender 51
6.9 Queer Theory 51
6.10 Masculinity Studies 52
6.11 Gay Entrepreneurship 53
6.12 Feminist Sensitive Approaches 54
6.13 Narrative Approaches 54
6.14 Reflexivity 56
6.15 Conclusion 56
6.16 Discussion Points and Activities 56

7 Family in Women-Owned Businesses and Women in Family Businesses 58
7.1 Introduction 58
7.2 Learning Outcomes 58
7.3 The Double Shift 59
7.4 Impact of Family on Business 60
7.5 Market Work versus Housework 61
7.6 Family Embeddedness 62
7.7 The "5M" Framework 62
7.8 The Paradox of Empowering Women and the Debate around Mumpreneurship 64
7.9 Women in Family Business 65
7.10 Succession 67
7.11 Copreneurship 69
7.12 Conclusion 71
7.13 Discussion Points and Activities 71

8 Non-financial Entrepreneurial Capital 72
8.1 Introduction 72
8.2 Learning Outcomes 72
8.3 Entrepreneurial Capital Accrual 72
8.4 Human Capital 73
8.5 Financial Capital 74
8.6 Social Capital 75
8.7 Female Networking 75

8.8 Formal Networking Mechanisms 76
8.9 Symbolic Capital 78
8.10 Conclusion 80
8.11 Discussion Points and Activities 80

9 Financing Women-Owned Businesses 81
9.1 Introduction 81
9.2 Learning Outcomes 81
9.3 Accessing Finance 81
9.4 Challenges Faced by Female Entrepreneurs 82
9.5 Pecking Order Hypothesis 83
9.6 Bank Finance 83
9.7 Demand-Side Risk-Aversion 85
9.8 Venture Capital 86
9.9 Business Angels 88
9.10 Crowdfunding 89
9.11 Conclusion 90
9.12 Discussion Points and Activities 90

10 Emerging Technologies and Women's Entrepreneurship 91
10.1 Introduction 91
10.2 Learning Outcomes 91
10.3 Technology and Entrepreneurship 91
10.4 STEM Entrepreneurship 92
10.5 The Pipeline Effect 93
10.6 Inherent Masculinity of Technology 94
10.7 Intersection of Gender and Technology Venturing 95
10.8 Fitting in Whilst Standing Out 97
10.9 Digital Entrepreneurship and Gender 98
10.10 Social Media and Gender 99
10.11 Cyberfeminism 100
10.12 Conclusion 101
10.13 Discussion Points and Activities 102

11 Contextualisation of Women's Entrepreneurship 103
11.1 Introduction 103
11.2 Learning Outcomes 103
11.3 The Argument for a Contextualised Approach 104
11.4 Context Defined 105
11.5 Waves of Contextualisation in Entrepreneurship Research 105
11.6 Entrepreneurship in Context 106
11.7 The Embeddedness of Women's Entrepreneurship 107

11.8 Moving Forward 107
11.9 Conclusion 109
11.10 Discussion Points and Activities 109

12 Conclusion: Exploring Future Research Agendas in the Field of Gender and Entrepreneurship By Professor Susan Marlow 110
12.1 Introduction 110
12.2 Past Themes and Concerns 111
12.3 Moving Forward – Potential Research Opportunities and Pathways 113
12.4 Theoretical Gender and Entrepreneurship 113
12.5 Intersectionality 116
12.6 Context 117
12.7 Finance 117
12.8 Social Entrepreneurship 118
12.9 Households 119
12.10 Researching Gender and Entrepreneurship 122
12.11 Concluding Remarks 123

References 127
Index 167