

Contents

Preface	7
Iwona Sagan, David M. Smith
Anne Buttimer
Introduction to the debate on sustainable development	9
Part I: Policy, governance, management
– how to stimulate urban sustainable development	15
Tassilo Herrschel
Urban quality, competitiveness and governance
– a North American–European perspective	17
David Counsell
Sustainable development: its role in integrating urban and regional policy in England	33
Iwona Sagan
The policy of sustainable development in post-socialist cities	45
Part II: Towards the city as a sustainable dwelling place	59
Stefan Buzar
Post-socialist urban ecosystems in flux: the socio-spatial differentiation of three Budapest districts	61
Annegret Haase, Sigrun Kabisch, Annett Steinführer
Reurbanisation of inner-city areas in Europe	77
Philipp Rode, Dagmar Grimm-Pretner
Upgrading processes – the interrelationship and change between governmental strategies, the development of the built environment and social change, based on examples in Vienna	93
Part III: Different ways to urban sustainability	105
Bryan H. Massam, Brian J. Hrats
Cultural facilities as important elements of a sustainable city:
the example of Toronto, Canada	107
Monika A. Murzyn
Changes in the Jewish quarters in Central Europe after 1989	121
Sarah Curtis
Planning for the health impacts of social and economic regeneration in cities:
participative and evidence based approaches	135
Piotr Lorens
Urban regeneration vs. urban sprawl – is the “compact city” possible?	147

Zbigniew Jakubczyk, Janusz Słodczyk Revitalisation and the sustainable development of cities: A theoretical and empirical approach	159
Part IV: Looking for a new approach to sustainability problem	177
Joost Platje New institutional economic theory as a basis for urban sustainable development?	179
Mariusz Kistowski The geography of sustainable development – a new approach to the study of city sustainability	191
Sylwia Kaczmarek, Jacek Kaczmarek The sustainable city – myth or reality?	203
Conclusions	217
David M. Smith and Iwona Sagan Conclusions	219