

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Understanding Polarity in Theory and History	1
	Nina Græger, Bertel Heurlin, Ole Wæver, and Anders Wivel
Part I Theorizing Polarity
2	Polarity Is What Power Does When It Becomes Structure	23
	Ole Wæver
3	Polarity and Threat Perception in Foreign Policy: A Dynamic Balancing Model	45
	Kai He
4	Uneasy Partners: Neorealism and Unipolar World Order	63
	Georg Sørensen
5	Combining Polarity and Geopolitics: The Explanatory Power of Geostructural Realism	81
	Øystein Tunsjø
6	Between Polarity and Foreign Policy: Freedom of Manoeuvre Is the Missing Link	101
	Hans Mouritzen

7	What Future for Small States After Unipolarity? Strategic Opportunities and Challenges in the Post-American World Order	127
	Rebecca Pedi and Anders Wivel
8	Critical, Restless, and Relevant: Realism as Normative Thought	149
	Sten Rynning
Part II Polarity and International Security
9	Polarity, Non-polarity, and the Risks of A-Polarity	171
	Robert J. Lieber
10	Unipolarity and Nationalism: The Racialized Legacies of an Anglo-Saxon Unipole	191
	Jennifer Sterling-Folker
11	Managing the Delta of Unipolarity: Post-Cold War Misalignment of American Political Projects and World Order from DPG92 to Trump	211
	André Ken Jakobsson
12	The Nexus of Systemic Power and Identity: Structural Variations of the US-China Great Power Rivalry	231
	Andreas B. Forsby
13	The US Unipolar World Order and China's Rise	251
	Camilla T. N. Sørensen
14	Polarity and Realignment in East Asia 1945–2020	265
	Peter Toft
15	Polarity, Proliferation, and Restraint: A Market-Centric Approach	291
	Eliza Gheorghe
16	Unipolarity and Order in the Arctic	313
	Rasmus Gjedssø Bertelsen
17	Europe in the U.S.-Russian Security Dilemma: Is There a Way Out?	333
	Barbara Kunz

18	The Discourse on the US/NATO and the EU in Danish Foreign Policy: The Language of Unipolarity?	351
	Henrik Larsen
Part III The Future of Polarity and International Order
19	A U.S. Strategy of Judicious Retrenchment	369
	Charles Kupchan
20	An Emerging World that Defies Historical Analogy	389
	Randall Schweller
21	Polarity and International Order: Past and Future	411
	William C. Wohlforth
	Index	425