

Contents

List of Tables	vii
Note on the Transliteration	ix
Chronology of Key Foreign Policy Events, 1979–2024	xi
Preface	xxix
1 Understanding Change and Continuity in Russia's Foreign Policy	1
Russia's Foreign Policy: Change and Continuity	2
Three Schools of Foreign Policy Thinking	4
Explaining Change and Continuity in Russian Foreign Policy	10
The Insufficiency of Traditional Explanations	10
Evaluating Russia's Foreign Policy	21
Evaluative Standards	21
Methodology and Organization of the Book	27
2 The Cold War Crisis and Soviet New Thinking, 1986–1991	33
The Cold War and Soviet Foreign Policy	33
Gorbachev and the Concept of New Thinking	35
Domestic Critics of New Thinking	40
New Thinking Abroad: Banking on the West's Recognition	42
The Crisis for Nationalities and the Revenge of New Thinking at Home	47
Utopia and Reality: Assessment of Gorbachev's Foreign Policy	50
3 The Post-Soviet Decline and Attempts at Cooperation, 1991–2004	57
International and Domestic Conditions	57
Three Perspectives on National Identity and Interest	62

The Westernist Moment, 1991–1993	78
The Statist Challenge, 1994–1999	93
Putin's Pragmatic Cooperation, 2000–2004	107
4 Recovery and Assertiveness, 2005–2011	127
Global and Domestic Changes	128
Redefined National Interest	135
Putin's Assertiveness, 2005–2008	142
Medvedev's Pragmatism, 2009–2011	152
5 Civilizational Turn and New Assertiveness, 2012–2020	171
International and Domestic Conditions	171
State-Civilization and Renewed Assertiveness	176
New Rivalry with the West	180
Turning to East and "Greater Eurasia"	188
Did the New Assertiveness Pay Off?	194
6 The Russia–West Conflict, the War in Ukraine, and a Post-Western World, 2021–	203
Global Instability and Russia's Vulnerabilities	204
The Invasion of Ukraine	207
Concentration of Power and the New Foreign Policy Concept	214
The West: Management of Confrontation	218
Capitalizing on Non-Western Relations	227
Tentative Record and Prospects	234
7 Conclusions and Lessons	243
Change and Continuity in Russia's Foreign Policy	243
Lessons for Russia	251
Lessons for the West	255
Further Reading	261
Essay Questions	267
Topics for Discussion or Simulation	271
Index	275