

Contents

Part I

1 Political Economy of Regulation	3
1.1 Introduction	3
1.1.1 A Short History of Regulation	5
1.1.2 Saving Capitalism by Regulation vs. Saving Capitalism from Capitalists (Big Business)	9
1.1.3 Regulatory Capture	11
1.1.4 Regulatory Failure	16
1.1.5 Who are the Winners and Losers of Regulation?	17
1.2 What Can We Learn from the Theories of Regulation?	19
1.3 Libertarian Views on Regulation vs. Polanyi	24
1.3.1 Concept of Social Costs and Regulation: Pigou and Kapp	27
1.3.2 Polanyi on Regulation	31
References	34
2 Regulation in the EU	39
2.1 Regulatory Capture in the EU	39
2.1.1 Regulatory Capture in TTIP Agreement	40
2.1.2 Level Playing Field or Regulatory Capture?	42
2.1.3 Risks of Regulatory Harmonisation or Mutual Recognition	44
2.1.4 The Post-TTIP Regulatory Cooperation	46
2.1.5 The Reform of Bolkestein Directive	48
2.2 Regulation of Regulatory Agencies	50
2.2.1 Independence from Government vs. Independence from Regulated Industries	50
2.2.2 Multi-Level Regulation in the EU	52
2.2.3 Trans-Governmental Regulatory Network	54
References	56

3 Too Much Regulation?	59
3.1 Too Much Regulation in the EU?	59
3.1.1 "Incentive" or Market-Driven Regulation	59
3.1.2 Regulation of Planned Obsolescence	61
3.1.3 "Better Regulation"	66
3.2 (De)Regulation or Self-Regulation?	69
3.2.1 Self-Regulation as a Substitute to Regulation?	75
3.2.2 Globalisation and (De)Regulation	79
3.3 (De)Regulation and Democracy	81
3.3.1 Regulatory Capture and Democracy	81
3.3.2 Corporate Capture and Democracy	84
3.3.3 Too Much Regulation and Local Democracy	86
3.3.4 Regulation of AI, Digital Economy and Protection of Democracy	87
3.3.5 Cryptocurrency: Contribution to Freedom?	91
3.3.6 Cryptocurrency and Financial Stability	94
3.3.7 Regulation of Crypto Assets and DeFi	97
3.3.8 Democratisation of Money?	102
References	104

Part II

4 Too Weak to Regulate?	115
4.1 History of Financial (De)Regulation	116
4.1.1 What Shaped Financial Regulation?	116
Shaping Financial Regulation in the US Before the 1929 Crash	117
The Post-1929 Crash Radical Reform	119
Shaping Financial Regulation at the International Level Before 2007	121
Financial Regulation After the 2007/8 Financial Crisis: the International Approach	123
TBTF: A Global Level Response	124
Shadow Banking Regulation at Global Level	130
The March 2020 Market Turmoil: A Short Reminder of "Bad Times"	133
History of Financial Deregulation: The Case of the US	135
Financial Deregulation in the UK	139
4.1.2 Why Do Deregulatory Pressures in the Financial Sector Appear Periodically?	142
Economic Developments and Market Pressure	142
Technological Developments and Financial Innovations	145
Ideological Bias and Lobbying	146
4.2 Regulation of Financial Sector: Political Economy Approach	148

4.2.1	Financial Regulation: Public Interest vs. Private Interest Theory of Regulation	149
4.2.2	Political Economy of Different Segments of Financial Regulation	154
4.2.3	The March 2020 Market Turmoil and Private Sector	157
4.2.4	Heterogeneity of Interests Within the Financial Industry	158
4.2.5	Who Has a Power to Capture Financial Regulation and How the Power is Used?	162
4.3	Too Much Regulation or Too Much Finance?	172
4.3.1	A Late Tribute to Minsky: Our Economy is Unstable Because of Capitalist Finance	172
	Financial Instability Hypothesis	173
	The Role of Regulation in Containing Financial Instability	175
	Innovations Circumventing Regulation	177
	Limitations of Minsky's Thinking	178
	Minsky's Controversial Thoughts on Taxation	179
	Conclusion on Minsky's Financial Instability Theory	180
	Minsky as a Progressive Thinker	181
4.3.2	Financial Stability as an Objective of Policymakers	182
	Consideration of Impacts of Financialisation on Financial Stability	187
	Macroprudential Regulation as a New Approach of Attaining Financial Stability	190
	The COVID-19 Pandemic and Financial Stability	193
	Lessons to Be Drawn from the Fall of SVB	194
	Climate Change and Financial Stability	201
	More on Financial Development vs. Financial Stability	205
	Financial Development vs. Growth	207
	Too Much Finance?	209
	Too Much Regulation?	210
4.4	Regulation of Credit Rating Agencies	213
4.4.1	The Role of CRAs Questioned	215
4.4.2	A Threat to Financial Stability	217
4.4.3	The Role of CRAs in Financial Crisis 2007/2008	218
4.4.4	The Role of CRAs in Sovereign Debt Crisis 2010–2011	221
4.4.5	Regulation & Supervision of CRAs	222
	A Short History of Regulation of CRAs in the US and at the International Level	222
	A Short History of Regulation of CRAs in the EU	224
4.4.6	A Political Economy Approach to Regulation of CRAs	227

	Self-Regulation vs. Regulation	228
	Ratings for Regulatory Purposes: Government Failure	228
	Conflict of Interest: Issuer—Pays Model vs. Investor—Pays Model, etc.	230
	Regulation of Conflict of Interest	231
	Little Transparency and Deficiencies of Methodology	232
	Market Dominated by the Big Three	234
	Lack of Accountability and a Liability Mechanism	235
	The European CRA	236
	References	237
5	Financial Regulation in the EU	251
5.1	The Financial Crisis 2007/2008—A Wake-Up Call for Financial Regulation	251
5.1.1	New Institutions and New Regulations	252
5.1.2	The Bank Structural Reform in the Liikanen Report	253
5.1.3	Bail-In vs. Bail-Out: More on the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive	257
5.1.4	Regulation of Shadow Banking	260
5.2	Political Economy of Banking Union	262
5.2.1	Why Banking Union?	262
5.2.2	Scope of Banking Union	263
5.2.3	Loss of Sovereignty Arguments	265
5.2.4	Risk-Reducing vs. Risk Sharing	266
5.2.5	A Short History of Taking Decisions	267
5.3	Building a European Banking Union	269
5.3.1	The First Building Block of the Banking Union	269
	The Road to Single Supervisory Mechanism	270
	The Institutional Setup of the Single Supervisory Mechanism	272
	Conferring a Supervisory Role to the ECB	274
5.3.2	A Distressful Journey to Single Resolution Mechanism	277
	European Cross-Border Banking Crisis	277
	More on a Political Economy of the SRM	279
	The Institutional Setup of the Single Resolution Mechanism	284
	A Bail-In Rule	287
	Risk-Reducing vs. Risk Sharing and the Single Resolution Fund	292
5.3.3	The Intricate Journey to the 3rd Pillar of the BU	295
	A Short History of the 3rd Pillar	295
	More on Political Economy of EDIS	301
	Breaking the Bank-Sovereign Loop and the RTSE	302
	More on Risk-Reducing Measures	305

	Reducing National Options and Discretions	305
	Moral Hazard Issues and Conditionality to Access
	EDIS	307
	The Institutional Setup of the European Deposit
	Insurance Scheme	308
5.4	The European CMU	309
5.4.1	Why Capital Markets in the EU Member States Are
	Less or Underdeveloped?	311
	Financialization in the EU	311
	Postponed Transformation from Industrial
	to Financial Capitalism in (Continental) Europe	311
	Dominancy of Banking Sector in the EU	317
	From Originate-to-Hold Model
	to Originate-to-Distribute Model	320
	The Politics of Capital Market Union	322
5.4.2	Progressing in the Capital Market Union	329
	Why CMU? Considering Arguments	329
	A Short History of CMU	334
	Progress Achieved. What to Do List	336
5.5	The Road to Sustainable Finance	343
5.5.1	What is Sustainable Finance?	344
5.5.2	Has Sustainability Disappeared from the CMU
	Project?	345
5.5.3	Political Economy Considerations of Sustainable
	Finance Regulation	347
5.5.4	Regulation of the ESG Rating Agencies	356
References		359
Index		375