

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements vii

Introductory 1

PART ONE HUMAN NATURE 13

Chapter I Individuality 15

- A Positive Individuality 15
- B Unique/Diverse Natures 19
- C Higher Natures and Excellences 25
 - 1 Higher and lower pleasures 25
 - 2 Complexity 26
 - 3 Intellectual development 27
 - 4 Art, emotion and intellect 30
- D The Organisation of Individuality 32
 - 1 Life plans 32
 - 2 Plans and coherence 34
 - 3 Three unacceptable modes of life 35
 - 4 Specialisation and discipline 40
- E Perfectionism and Modern Liberal Individuality 43

Chapter II Sociability: Social Life 54

- A Individuality, Completion and Social Life 54
- B Social Interest 55
 - 1 Our social nature and private society 56
 - 2 Extensions and complications 57
 - 3 Interest in the good of others 61
- C Individuality and Social Life 64
 - 1 The mutual stimulation argument 64
 - 2 Other senses of sociability 66
- D The Organic Conception of Social Life 68
 - 1 Mutually dependent growth 68
 - 2 Mutual completion 70

Chapter III Sociability: Community 80

- A Social Life and Community 80
- B Consciousness of Unity 81
 - 1 Two types of unity 81
 - 2 The scope of community 85
 - 3 Community and individuality: a first cut 87

Contents

- C Feelings of Unity 88
 - 1 Three types of affective ties 88
 - 2 Patriotism 89
 - 3 Fraternity 90
 - 4 Neighbourliness 94
 - 5 The family and community 96
 - 6 Individuality and community: a second cut 98
- D Social Service and Individuality 101
- E Individuality, Social Life and Community 106

Chapter IV Developmentalism 116

- A Nature and Nurture 116
 - 1 Instinctivism and environmentalism 116
 - 2 Interactionism 120
 - 3 Interactionist developmentalism 122
- B Strong Developmentalism 131
 - 1 Strong and weak developmentalism 131
 - 2 Happiness, pleasure and development 132
 - 3 Pathologies 135
- C The Problem of Discipline 139
 - 1 The first solution: self-discipline 142
 - 2 The second solution: the repressible and the irrepressible 144
 - 3 The third solution: sublimation 145
 - 4 The Rawlsian solution 148
- D Psychological and Social Development 151

PART TWO POLITICS

Chapter V Liberty 163

- A Positive and Negative Liberty 163
- B Liberty in General 165
 - 1 Self-satisfaction 165
 - 2 Choice and development 169
 - 3 Self-expression 171
 - 4 Coercive restraints 174
 - 5 Paternalism and development 176
- C Civil Liberties 182
- D Equal Liberty 187
 - 1 Equal liberty and proportionate justice 187
 - 2 Arguments from social life 190
 - 3 Arguments from community 192

Contents

Chapter VI Democracy	204
A Protective and Developmental Democracy	204
B The Developmental Case for Democracy	205
1 Intellectual development	205
2 Consciousness of community	209
3 Communal sentiments	212
C Community, Democracy and Despotism	214
1 The communal foundations of democracy	214
2 Despotic and democratic restraint	217
3 Two limitations on the case for democracy	220
D Development, Politics and Education	225
Chapter VII Economic Organisation	235
A Private Property and the Market	235
1 Private property	235
2 The market and human nature	241
B Economic Equality: A Minimum	243
1 Cases for a social minimum	243
2 The rejection of new liberal welfarism	247
C Economic Equality: A Maximum	251
D Industrial Life	257
Concluding Remarks	270
Bibliography	275
Index	297