

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Introduction: Military Diasporas and Diasporic Groups as Engines of Empire: An Introductory Research Agenda Georg Christ and Patrick Sanger	1
1 Military Diasporas in an Achaemenid Perspective Hilmar Klinkott	33
2 Immigrant Soldiers and Ptolemaic Policy in Hellenistic Egypt (Late Fourth Century–30 BCE): Reflections on a Military Diaspora and Its Components Patrick Sanger	51
3 Syrian Recruits and Units in the Roman Army: A Military Diaspora? Nathanael Andrade	82
4 Participants in the Emperor's Glory: The Statues for Generals in Late Antique Rome Mariana Bodnaruk	106
5 The Persian and Arab Occupations of Egypt in the Seventh Century Lajos Berkes	132

vi Contents

- 6 Alexios, Emperor of the Diasporas? The Komnenian Revolt of 1081 and Foreign Military Groups in Byzantium
Roman Shliakhtin 152
- 7 The Catalan Company as a Military Diasporic Group in Medieval Greece and Asia Minor
Mike Carr and Alasdair Grant 176
- 8 Christian Expatriates in Muslim Lands: The Many Roles of Aragonese Mercenaries in Medieval Northern Africa
Nikolas Jaspert 194
- 9 Professional Turks or Military Diaspora? The Mamluks and Dynamics of Ethnicity in Late Medieval Egypt and Syria
Julien Loiseau 234
- 10 Stradioti: A Balkan Military Diaspora in Early Modern Europe
Nicholas C. J. Pappas 258
- 11 Military Auxiliaries in Twelfth- and Thirteenth-Century Hungary: Nomads vs. Crusader Knights
László Veszprémy 280
- 12 Medieval Queens and the Diaspora of Escort, Conquest, the Crusades, and Military Orders
Christopher Mielke 301
- 13 Encountering the Heathen on the Baltic Frontier: The Order of the Sword Brethren and the Teutonic Order in Thirteenth-Century Livonia
Verena Schenk zu Schweinsberg 319
- 14 A Military Diaspora in Medieval Christendom: The Teutonic Order
Mark Whelan 339
- 15 The Cold Winter Campaign of 1511: Swiss Military Autonomy and Heteronomy during the Transalpine Campaigns
Anna Katharina Weltert and Georg Christ 363
- Index* 394