

Table of Contents

Joanna Sondel-Cedarmas/Grzegorz Pożarlik/Elżbieta M. Mach Introduction	7
Part One. From Systemic change to European integration
Joanna Sondel-Cedarmas/Witold Stankowski Post-totalitarian societies in Western Europe: A comparative case study analysis of Italy and Germany	19
Tadeusz Kopyś Models of systemic-economic transformation in Central and Eastern Europe	41
Elżbieta M. Mach/Zdzisław Mach European socio-political and cultural changes after 2004 in the context of the shaping of active citizenship	55
Part Two. Models of political transformation, reconstruction of the rule of law and politics of memory
Witold Kulesza Denazification in the BRD/DDR: An Outline of the Legal Aspects	73
Joanna Sondel-Cedarmas 'A difficult inheritance:' On the defascistization of public space in Italy in 1946–2019	95
Tomasz Scheffler The phantom revolution of 1989 in Poland	123
Ewa Kozerska The legacy of the Polish People's Republic in the doctrine and constitutional law in the first years of Poland's transformation	143

Krzysztof Koźbiał The Czech memory of the most important figures and events of the communist period in Czechoslovakia (1945–1989)	161
Tadeusz Kopyś Memory of a difficult past in Hungary: The Holocaust and the Treaty of Trianon	177
Part Three. Rebuilding social ties and shaping active European citizenship in post-totalitarian societies
Witold Stankowski From a divided society to a united and European one: The reunification of Germany, the transformation in East Germany and Germany in Europe	199
Andrea Natalini, Antonella Nuzzaci, Paola Rizzi Citizenship skills: A historical perspective in the European and Italian context	219
Paweł Kubicki The sociological vacuum in Poland: Reflections 30 years after the transformation	241
Grzegorz Pożarlik Civil society in post-1989 Poland as a contentious society: Systemic transformation and the Europeanisation of civil society	263
Jana Pecníková/Daniela Mališová The shaping of active European citizenship in the Slovak society	279
Tadeusz Kopyś The social determinants of political change in Hungary and its perception of the European Union (1989–2018)	293
Elżbieta M. Mach Preparing students for life in a common Europe: Reflections from Poland 17 years after the expansion of the EU	313