

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Preface | 9 |
| Abbreviations | 14 |
| I. Introduction | 15 |
| 1. Focus of the Monograph in a Broader Historical-Political Context and the Current State of Research Blanka Kudláčová | 17 |
| 2. A Territory Downtrodden by Two Totalitarian Regimes. Description and Explanation of the Socialist Totalitarianism in Slovakia Andrej Rajský | 40 |
| II. Examples of Unfree Education in the Period of Socialism | 67 |
| 3. Education Clenched by Sovietization and Marxist-Leninist Ideology Blanka Kudláčová | 69 |
| 4. Ideological Dictate at Universities and Political Education Blanka Kudláčová | 90 |
| 5. Civic Education in Socialist School Marek Wiesenganger | 110 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 6. Religious Education in Socialist School Pavol Jakubčín | 127 |
| 7. Model Extracurricular Education – “Sparks, Pioneers and Unionists” Ready to “Build and Defend the Socialist Motherland!” Janette Gubricová | 144 |
| 8. Education of Roma Children Shackled by Socialist Doctrine Ivana Šuhajdová | 164 |
| III. Examples of Free Education in the Period of Socialism | 181 |
| 9. Catholic Dissent – Quiet and Strong Opponent of Regime Blanka Kudláčová | 183 |
| 10. Evangelical Dissent – Towards a Free Generation in an Unofficial Way Kristína Liberčanová | 202 |
| 11. Civic Dissent as Civic Education Dagmar Kusá | 219 |
| 12. Literary Samizdat as a Demonstration of Free Creation in the Totalitarian Era Pavel Matejovič | 243 |
| 13. “Non-systemic Remains of Humanity” or Creative Dissent as a School of Free Thinking Andrea Bátorová | 266 |
| Conclusion | 287 |
| Contributors | 293 |